BOXERS' RECORDS

MULLEN AND CURLEY
SEASONED FIGHTERS.

Mullen Has a Record of Eleven Victories, Four Draws and Four Defeats—Curley Has Won Eight Fights Out of Fifteen, in Which He Has Been Defeated But Twice. While Five Were Draws—Curley Is the Heavier.

Barney Mullen, who is to meet Jack Curley in this city Wednesday, December 14, in a 10-round go, has fought 19 battles in which he has been victor in 11 and fought draws in four. Mullen is working hard at his training quarters and expects to put up a good exhibition when the match is pulled off.

Curley is a heavyweight and has a good record behind him. He is in the heavyweight class, however, and Mullen is several pounds lighter. The two men fought a 10-round draw in a previous go. The records of the two men follow:

Mullen—Jack Reilly, won, 10 rounds; Perry Queenan, draw, 20 rounds; Indian Joe Gregg, won, 20 rounds; G. McLaughlin, won, six rounds; Al Davey, knockout, one round; Jack Curley, draw, 10 rounds; Jim Burrows, lost, 20 rounds; Rufe Turner, lost on foul, 17 rounds; Wisconsin Kid, knockout, two rounds; Larry Gleason, lost, 20 rounds; Jack Rafer, heavyweight, knockout, two rounds; Larry Gleason, draw, 20 rounds; Gene Nichols, knockout, three rounds; Dick Case, draw, 15 rounds; Dave Frazer, knockout, three rounds; Chris Lavere, knockout, 16 rounds; Larry Gleason, won, three rounds; Indian Joe Gregg, lost on foul, four rounds; Jack Reilly, won, nine rounds. Curley—Billy Cooper, knockout, four rounds; Dick Case, won, 10 rounds; Nick Burley, draw, 27 rounds; Indian Joe Gregg, draw, 20 rounds; Ed Kelly, won, 10 rounds; Billy Wright, knockout, two rounds; Fred Russell, lost, 10 rounds; Ben Trellie, draw, 20 rounds; Tommy Reilly, lost, 20 rounds; Barney Mullen, draw, 10 rounds; Dummy Rowan, won, 20 rounds; Jimmy Burrows, knockout, nine rounds; Billy Burrows, knockout, five rounds; Joe Robinson, won, five rounds; Joe Robinson, draw, 15 rounds.

Progressive Pilot Rock.

The outside work on the new school house has been completed and the building now presents a handsome appearance. The board of directors is negotiating for the sale of the old building, hoping to realize a sufficient sum in this way to pay for seating the new building.

Through the efforts of Miss Grace Gilliam and Miss Eugenia McAllister, a subscription has been raised for the purpose of buying an eight-foot American flag for the school. Each of the school children contributed toward the fund and a lesson in patriotism was thus taught the little ones. A public school without an American flag is as incomplete as a home without a mother.—Pilot Rock Record.

Mixed Maxims.

A man is known by the trumpery he keeps. Never put a gift cigar in your mouth. The lack of money is the root of all evil. Where wisdom is, folly is to be ignorant. A pinch in time saved the nine. Chain up a child and away he will go. Virtue is its own reward. The course of free love never did run smooth. A bird in hand lays no eggs. All that a man hath will he give to his wife. Many hands like light work. It's a wise child that knows its own father. The rolling stone catches the worm. Occupation is the thief of time. A thirsty man will catch at a straw. Absence makes the heart grow fonder. Straws show which the gin goes. "Heaven lies about us in our infancy," and this world lies about us when we are grown up. The woman who collaborates is lost. It is not good for man to give a loan. The wages of sin is debt. Every dogma must have its day.—Carlyle Wells, in the Chap-Book.

Seedless Apples a Fake.

The claim is made that the "seedless" apple has been "developed after years of experiment" by J. F. Spencer, Grand Junction, Col. The cuts used in the pamphlets to illustrate both fruits and blossom indicate that the variety is closely similar to a number of those freak apples which have long been grown in many localities throughout Europe and the United States under such names as Fig Apple, Seedless, Bloomless, Coreless, Nollow, Noddy, etc., none of which are of any value except as interesting curiosities. A number of these varieties have been described and illustrated for more than a century, and nowhere has one assumed commercial importance.—Tribune-Farmer.

Baptist Church.—The pastor will be present at both morning and evening services. The morning theme is: "The Castaway." At the evening worship there will be a song service in which our new hymnals will be used. After the song service the pastor will preach a short sermon. Let all strangers come who are not in the habit of attending church. Someone forgot the church prayer meeting last Wednesday night. G. L. H.

Passengers on the west-bound O. R. & N. train started a subscription at the depot this morning to present to an Indian man, whom they saw carrying the papoose. It was the first instance ever recorded in which the man carried the papoose, but his squaw was carrying a bundle of luggage as big as 10 babies at the same time.
